

197. Upon the sale of any slave, the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the expense thereof, shall be paid over to the county or city where he was convicted.

198. If any slave or servant be convicted of any crime the punishment whereof may be death or sale, the court before whom such conviction shall take place, shall immediately proceed to value such slave or the time of such servant and enter the same on the proceedings of the court, and such value shall be assessed and collected with the county or city assessment and paid to the owner of such slave or servant.

299. After the termination of confinement in the penitentiary, either by expiration of the term or by pardon of any free negro now therein, the directors of the penitentiary are directed to pay him, out of the proceeds of his labor, a sum of money not exceeding thirty dollars—and such convict shall be banished from this State. And if any such convict shall be found in this State after sixty days from the day of his discharge from the penitentiary, he may be apprehended and sold by any person finding him, as a slave for the term of his original conviction, upon proof being shown to any judge of a court of record, or any two justices of the peace of the county where said discharged convict shall be apprehended, that he has been confined in and discharged from the penitentiary.

200. If any person purchasing a negro convicted under this article, shall sell the said negro for a longer time than that for which he has purchased him, or in any other manner continue to deprive him of his freedom, when the term of service has expired for which he was sold, he shall be fined a sum in double the amount for which the said negro was sold, and in default of payment shall be imprisoned for a term of not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, or may be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

SODOMY.

201. Every person convicted of the crime of sodomy, shall be sentenced to the penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than ten years.
